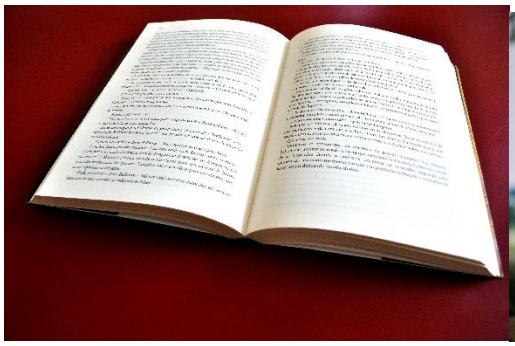
Play Reading Group



In June we read the second act of, an adaptation of the book by Laurie Lee. Again we appreciated the humour and language of this delightful and iconic memoir. There is a very large cast so again we all had to read several parts, but this group can do anything, and our usual interesting discussion and conversation of course followed.

Pat Stannard, 027 2110391